Main Line Baseball League Throws Out Royersford Games

Remaining Teams' Standings Unaffected by Decision of Officials

PLAY-OFF DATES ARE SET

At a meeting of the Main Line Baseball League last Monday night it was decided to throw out of the league standings all the games played and all those forfeited by the late lamented Royersford Club.

This action, however, failed to change the status of the other teams—Narberth and Gladwyne remaining in a tie for first place, Brookline in third and Paoli at the moment in fourth. In the event that Coatesville should win their four postponed games, they would tie Paoli for the last play-off position. It has been decided that if a play-off is necessary to determine the fourth place, it will be played Saturday, September 11, with regular play-offs starting Sunday, September 12.

Unless Coatesville finishes in the running, the championship games will all be played on the Narberth diamond, as the present leaders have indicated their willingness. However, if Coatesville lands the fourth place berth, they will insist on having their share of the games played in Coatesville.

As to the method of play-off, it was voted to stage it on a double header basis. The preliminary games will be decided by the best two out of three. The second series will be played on September 18 and 19—the final play-offs the week following.

Receipts from the preliminaries, after a 10 per cent cut is turned over to the league, are to be divided among the four leading teams on a 40-30-20-10 per cent basis. The winner and loser of the final play-off will share a 60-40 division.

Due to Paoli's refusal to take the field last Saturday at Gladwyne to replay part of a protested game, a forfeit was awarded to the KeyNels. This, plus a 7 to 4 decision in the regularly scheduled game, enabled the Gladwyne nine to move into a first place tie with Narberth.

"Fraud" Charged Against Backers of Wilson in County Scrap

MAKES PLEA FOR UNITY

Charles V. Noel, secretary of the Narberth Borough Council and chief of the Narberth Fire Company, authorized the following statement to be issued today:

"My name was appropriated and used as treasurer of a Campaign Committee trying to nominate ex-burgess, Walter A. Wilson, of Norristown, as prothonotary in Montgomery County. This was done without consultation with me or without my permission. I wish to serve public notice that I did not authorize this fraud and my sympathies are not with these tactics or the election of Wilson to an important county post.

"As a loyal Republican for years I subscribe to these principles that will build a stronger organization for our party. I believe that when such an important post as prothonotary is to be filled all district leaders should be consulted as to their feelings in the matter. I do not want any glory for myself, but I believe the people I represent and work for should have some consideration.

"I had no knowledge of what was to transpire when Wilson's name was

Kelley on P. M. Board

Postmaster Joseph L. Kelley of Narberth was elected a member of the board of directors of the Pennsylvania Chapter, National Association of Postmasters at its recent convention.

The organization, meeting last Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Scranton, comprises 1530 of the 2600 postmasters in the state. Another county delegate, B. A. Develin of Jenkintown, was made third vice president. Also in attendance from the Main Line were Daniel J. McDonough, Ardmore and Bernard Kerrigan, Bryn Mawr.

Late Holidays Find Many Moving About

As August is the favorite vacation month, many of the residents of the Borough are at the various seashore or mountain resorts enjoying their holidays while others have returned to their homes after delightful motor trips through the New England States or to the West Coast. Others, too, have had interesting visitors from the various parts of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Weihe-mayer, of Essex avenue, returned Wednesday from a week's trip to Asheville, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Schrepfer and their children, Kenneth and June, left Wednesday for Margate, N. J., where they will remain until September 10.

Miss Ruth Suplee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Suplee, of Woodside avenue, recently returned from a stay in Ocean City. Miss Suplee left Wednesday for Baltimore, where she will be among the guests at a dance and house party given by Dr. and Mrs. Walter A. Patrick.

Miss Virginia Chase, of Cranford, N. J., is spending several weeks as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Marscher, of Haverford avenue.

Mr. Henry P. Newell, Jr., who has been on a month's trip to the West Coast, Canada and Mexico, has returned to his home on S. Narberth avenue.

Mrs. Edward Heymann, of Shirley road, is in St. Johnsbury, Vt., where she is visiting her mother. Her son, John Heymann, has been spending the summer at a camp there. Mrs. Heymann will return the latter part of next week.

Mr. Joseph Loos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Loos, of Shirley road, has also been spending some time at a camp near St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Mrs. Paul R. Loos, who has been spending several weeks in Southern New York and was also on a motor trip through New England, has returned to her home on Shirley road.

Her daughter, Miss Jean Loos, gave a supper and shower last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Muir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Muir, of Montgomery avenue, Cynwyd, whose marriage to Mr. Blaine Ely, of Cynwyd, will take place next month.

Mrs. Francis V. Mitchell, of Lantwyn lane, is spending several days at Cape May.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Dohard, of Haverford avenue, and Miss Fanny Loos, also of Haverford avenue, have returned from a week's stay in Brattleboro, Vt., where they were the guest of Miss Louise Beatty at her summer home.

Library Adds Books on Foreign Subjects

International Mind Alcove Gains Several New Volumes

Four new books have recently been added to the International Mind Alcove at the Narberth Community Library. The Alcove is a gift of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

The first of these new books is "An Essay on the Nature of Contemporary England," by Hilaire Belloc. This is a book which is sure to arouse discussion. The author is not only a well known editor in England, but has also had an unusual opportunity to study his subject. He was an English school boy and studied at Oxford and served as a member of Parliament. However, he was born in France and did his conscript service with the French army. This combination of experiences assures something objective and unique on Contemporary England.

Agnes Rothery, the author of "Denmark," another new Alcove book, is known for her books on Finland and Sweden. She takes us for a delightful journey through a kingdom that has steered its course safely between dictatorship on the one hand and communism on the other.

"Canada," by Andre Siegfried is one of the latest books on our neighbor country which is not as well known to us as it should be. The au-

Thieves Ransack Davis' Store for the Second Time

Over $200 in Cigarettes Taken in Wednesday Night Burglary

PRY OPEN REAR WINDOW

Davis' Store, on Haverford avenue, Narberth, was ransacked Wednesday night, for the second time in three months. As before, cigarettes made up the greater part of the loot, estimated by Howard E. Davis to be in the neighborhood of $225.

The thieves made their entry by prying open a rear window and managing to scramble over some light shelving in front of the window without awakening the Davis', who live upstairs. The robbery occurred between eleven o'clock Wednesday night, when the store closed, and 6.00 yesterday morning, when Mr. Davis opened the store.

The first indication that the shop had been visited again was the discovery of a pasteboard box, packed with loose packages of cigarettes, on the floor where it had been dropped by the intruder. The loose supply of smokable back of the counter showed signs of shrinkage and investigation soon revealed that a large shipment of cartons, received that day, had been taken. A few watches and fountain pens were also missed.

The store was robbed on May 23rd of $600 in money and merchandise by a thief who smashed a rear window. These two robberies, the only ones in the store's twenty-eight years of existence, come as part of a wave of store and house entries in Lower Merion and Narberth in recent months. Some six were made public last week.

Voters Must Register by Wed. or Lose Vote

Only Five Days Remain for Residents of County to Register at Court House

Voters in Montgomery County who did not register this summer during the regular Registration Days are warned that they will lose their right to vote if they do not register by September 1.

The office of the Commissioners in the Court House, Norristown, is open from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M. today, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and from 8 A. M. to 5 P. M. tomorrow, for the convenience of those who wish to register.

It is estimated that approximately 50,000 voters in this County failed to register. Under the Permanent Registration Act, passed during the last session of the Legislature, these citizens will forfeit their right to vote.

J. C. McKell, Jr., Wins State Poster Contest

Former Narberth Boy First in Field of 123 in Legion Competition

FATHER IS AN ARTIST

James C. McKell, Jr., of Penfield, a former Narberth resident, is the winner of the Pennsylvania State contest for a poster design for Poppy Day. McKell, who is eighteen, and a senior at the Haverford Township High School, was informed this week that he had taken first prize in a field of 123 entries.

The winning poster, which survived the Delaware County contest, will be entered in the national competition, to be judged in New York. The contest is sponsored by the American Legion. Presentation of the State prize will be made at the South Ardmore Legion dugout on September 9.

Young McKell comes by his talent honestly. His father is a well-known illustrator, and earned a national reputation for his paintings of western scenes.

Performs for Police

Saving the police a long run in hot weather, William Whalen, 30, of N. 40th street near Baring, chose a spot right in front of the Lower Merion Township police station early Sunday for an automobile collision.

He was driving on the wrong side of Lancaster pike, police said, when his machine collided with one driven by Robert Timothy, 23, of Penn street, Bryn Mawr.

Whalen attempted to drive away, but two officers overtook him a block from the police station. They said a physician pronounced him drunk. He was placed under arrest.

Arrest Bryn Mawr Man

George Morgan, 21, of Thomas avenue, Bryn Mawr, was arrested on a drunken-driving charge early Sunday morning after his automobile left the road and crashed into an embankment at Essex and Haverford avenues, Narberth.

Narberth Children to Enroll Next Week

From his vacation cottage at Ocean City, W. J. Drennen, principal of the Narberth Public Schools, has issued the following schedule for enrollment of pupils:

Kindergarten enrollment for all pupils who will be five years of age on or before February 15, will take place on September 2 between the hours of 1 and 4 P. M.

For pupils not previously enrolled in the Narberth Schools, enrollment will take place on September 3 for grade one to eight inclusive, at the same hours.

Pupils must present vaccination and birth certificates or others proof of date of birth.

School sessions will begin September 7 at 8.40 A. M. for a half day session and full sessions thereafter.

Miss Brown Has Narrow Escape as Holiday Ends

Miss Laura M. Brown, of 123 Elmwood avenue, Narberth, is recovering from painful injuries suffered last Saturday at Asbury Park, N. J., when she was hurled to the tracks by a heavy-set man running for a train.

Miss Brown suffered a broken nose, a fractured arm and rib and face injuries when her head struck a steel rail. She was taken to the hospital for treatment and was brought home Tuesday to complete her recovery from the injuries and resultant shock.

The accident occurred at the unfortunate conclusion of a two weeks' vacation at the shore resort with her sister, Miss Mabel Brown.

Penn Valley Plot Sold

A tract of one and one-half acres at the southwest corner of Woodbine and Righter's Mill roads, Penn Valley, has been sold to Frank H. Wilson by J. Bruce Byall through Emlen & Co. A $35,000 home with fifteen rooms and four baths is planned for the tract.

The corner, wooded and with a stream, is said to be on the route of Washington's troops on the march to Valley Forge, with trenches still discernible.

Campers Take Down Leaves and Roll Up Paths As Season Wanes

(This is the seventh letter from the local boys at Ranger Lodge, Casco Maine.)

BY STEVE SCHOFF

The usual intercamp competition and trips featured the sixth week at Ranger Lodge. Other campers kept themselves busy garnering enough points to win one of the camp medals at the end of the summer.

George Paine broke up two ball games in two consecutive days with his tremendous hitting. Against Agawam he pounded a single and two triples to lead the team to a 5-3 triumph, receiving invaluable aid from Len Jones, Bud Inval and Jim Dykes. Against Kohut the next afternoon George walloped a single and two home runs to bat in seven of the eleven runs that enabled the Lodge to win by a tally of 11-7. John Stoudt pitched well and Dan Karcher put up strong defensive play. The peanut team lost, however, to the Kohut lads 9-8 after a disastrous seven run rally. Ade Smith, Bill Jones, Howie McConnell and Marshall Brooks looked the best for the younger lads.

The swimming team continued its winning ways by downing Hawthorne's natators 76-59. Paul Hicks and Ken Clancy starred for the peanut team, Berwyn MacFadden, Gordy Clausen and Bobby Roberts led the junior outfit and Ralph Moss, Hank Ludlow and Bill Grugan compiled the senior points. This constitutes the fourth straight victory for coach John Macionis' tankmen.

Under the tutelage of Don Vogts, the track team lost a heartbreaker to Hawthorne 52-44, as the relay, the final event, was lost and the meet with it. Cliff Roberts, Johnny Grellis,

District Governor Visits Rotary Club for Annual Session

Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Group Holds Official Conference

PEACE IS EMPHASIZED

Members of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club had the course of their work for the next year outlined Tuesday by the new District Governor, Samuel L. Shanaman, of Phoenixville.

Mr. Shanaman, in making his annual official visit to the club, spent more than an hour with the officers and committee chairmen before the meeting, checking over matters of management and the club's place in the community.

In his speech before the members, Mr. Shanaman emphasized the part of Rotary in the campaign for world peace and deplored the recent attack of the Nazis against the organization. Fellowship was emphasized as a vital factor in the success of Rotary clubs.

The governor, a former teacher in the Lower Merion schools, deplored the fact that scientific progress has overshadowed ethical growth. Fellowship, community service, vocational service and international service were emphasized as the cornerstones of the movement.

"We must know man before we can condemn him. We must understand him," Shanaman said in amplifying his themes.

To illustrate his second premise, the Governor declared, "We must plan our community work thoroughly, and not in haste, as some service clubs are doing. We need a code of ethics in our business. A successful business man must 'play the game' according to the rules. Confidence in business comes through square dealing."

In conclusion, discussing the international aspect of the service club, Shanaman urged the Rotarians to learn and understand the peoples across the seas. He cited the incidents in his trips abroad, and concluded, "To put Rotary across all over

Philadelphia Zoo is Given Rare Tortoise

Gift is a Member of the Fast-Disappearing Race of Giant Tortoises

The Philadelphia Zoo is constantly the recipient of divers gifts of animals. Quite logically it is the receiving station for all the discarded white rats and baby alligators in the city, and raccoons and possums which outgrow their usefulness as pets are also frequent arrivals. Even skunks are given to the Zoo at times.

All such things are accepted with thanks. But, once in a while, someone walks in with a really unusual present. Such has just arrived in the person of a young Galapagos tortoise, a member of the fast disappearing race of giant tortoises inhabiting the Galapagos Islands, 500 miles off the coast of Ecuador in the Pacific Ocean.

It was presented by Mr. Winthrop Grant, of Philadelphia. Mr. Grant wrote to the Zoo in advance asking them if they wanted an Ecuadorian box turtle. Of course the Zoo did, and when it turned out to be one of the rare Galapagos tortoises—well, to say the least, the curators were delighted.

Mr. Grant received it from a sea captain eight years, who suggested he make a pot of soup from it! He has kept it on his porch ever since.

Norristown to Celebrate

Jointly marking Norristown's 125th anniversary of its incorporation as a borough and the 150th anniversary of the United States Constitution, a week's program has been arranged by the Montgomery County seat town to appropriately observe the historic events.

The celebration will start with community religious services in Elmwood Park on Sunday, September 12, and continue throughout the week with a parade of military veterans and volunteer firemen on Saturday, September 18.

Uncle Sam Must Pay the Bill

In a forceful editorial, the Philadelphia Record condemns the gold buying policy of the United States Treasury, and warns that this policy will saddle this country with the costs of the next war.

The Record takes the case of Japan and charges that the Japanese, faced with new warfare in China, scouted around for funds. They were aware that Uncle Sam was buying gold—and paying about twice the cost of its production. So Japan readjusted her gold base, which released approximately $130,000,000 worth of her gold.

This $130,000,000 worth of gold was shipped to the United States, sold to the Treasury. To buy the gold, the Treasury will borrow the money, at interest—i.e., increase our national debt. So, Japan's war has boosted our national debt by $130,000,000.

To be sure, we have the gold. But that gold is worth the present high price only because the United States Treasury has inflated the gold market. Were the Treasury suddenly to stop buying gold—the value of gold would collapse.

China, like Japan, wants war supplies from the United States. So, since China has no gold, as Japan has, we have decided to buy her silver. Our own silver stocks are sky high. We don't need silver. We have no use for it. But we are buying it, building a storage vault for it at West Point, similar to the gold vault at Fort Knox.

The Record concludes as follows:

"While America piles up gold, the rest of the world piles up armaments.

"And our State Department urged disarmament upon the very nations whose rearmament we are doing so much to finance.

"Where will it end?

"It is likely to end, first, with Uncle Sam holding the gold bag for the world, and, second, with the American people footing the bill and fighting for victory in another world war.

"Could we sell gold back to Japan? To England? To France? To Russia? Those nations aren't buying gold. They're selling it—to us. And the more they sell, the less interest they have in keeping gold as a medium of exchange or as a base for money. The more gold we buy, the more it will profit them to abandon gold as money.

"Meanwhile, the gold purchases drag us deeper and deeper into the arms race. And once the gold market collapses, the American people will pay for the losses in the sweat of their brows.

"We don't need more gold. We don't want more gold. We can't afford to take more gold, at any price.

"Buying gold is buying war."

Thieves Ransack Davis' Store for Second Time

Last spring an additional patrolman was added to the Narberth force, giving the Borough a sergeant and four patrolmen—the extra man on duty always at nights. Members of the Lower Merion detective staff were busy with a hunt for clues Thursday.

Mr. Davis' son, Eugene H. Davis, Narberth councilman and manager of the store, was absent on a trip to Virginia.

No Settlement Seen in Republican Split Over County Office

Possibility of Compromise Candidate for Prothonotary Shows No Immediate Promise

The split in Montgomery County Republican ranks, resulting from the four-way prothonotary contest, shows no immediate prospect of settlement this week.

Endorsement of Walter A. Wilson, former editor of the Norristown Times Herald, has been given by the "Harmony Committee," which is headed by Senator Theodore Lane Bean and which includes such political leaders as Peter C. Hess, of Lower Merion Township; Sheriff Edwin H. Bellis, Harold C. Pike, Ralph Morgan, Wayne Herkness, Frank Shalkop and Frederick B. Smilie.

A faction headed by Fred C. Peters, president of the Montgomery County Commissioners, and William Hower is supporting Earl B. Bechtel, of Pottstown.

Of the two remaining candidates, William T. Muldrew and Romanus Fellman, it is possible that Muldrew may be considered as a compromise selection if both factions can agree on a compromise.

There is apparently some question as to the real issue back of the rift. While Peters has been accused of attempting to set himself up as county leader, he denies this, stating that his only reason for not going along with the "Harmony Committee" is the desire to do what is for the "good of the Republican party."

The withdrawal of J. Stroud Weber, Norristown attorney, from the judgeship race in Montgomery County, was announced this week. Although Weber's name will appear on the ballot for the primary, September 14, his action will leave the field clear for the unanimous nomination of Judge Knight on the Republican ticket.

In his statement announcing his withdrawal, which was sent to Peters, Weber stated that he would support Bechtel.

List American Premiere of 'Bystander' for Sept.

Hedgerow Theatre Will Present Unusual Play of English Prison Life

September's noteworthy opening for Philadelphia theatre goers will be the American premiere of Robert Brennan's "Bystander" at the Hedgerow Theatre, Moylan-Rose Valley, on September 14. This unusual play of English prison-life was first given theatrical existence at the famed Abbey Theatre in 1930.

The author has treated his absorbing subject in a serio-comic fashion, which successfully maintains audience suspense from the moment the first line is spoken until the final curtain. The Abbey production was so tremendously popular, that the play was revived the fall of the same year.

The new week starts off on August 30 with Eugene O'Neill's "The Emperor Jones," and Mr. Shakespeare's immortal comedy, "Twelfth Night," playing Tuesday. September 1 brings Bernard Shaw back to Hedgerow's stage in the form of "Too True to be Good," which has played to sold out houses since its addition to the theatre's repertory in July. "Misalliance," another Shaw favorite will be performed Thursday.

The week closes with another performance of "Penny Wise" on Friday and Shaw's "Arms and the Man" on Saturday.

Campers Heading Home From Ranger Lodge

Charlie Dykes, Len Jones, Jack Freeman and Bob Paine kept the team in the running.

The councilors sewed up the seasons series by thumping the boys 10-3 as Pop Fowler again had the lads breaking their backs in an effort to hit his tantalizing delivery. Jim Fitzpatrick and Hack Webster led the council with the willow as Don Smith, Bob Warwick and Rolly Young provided the seniors strength.

Mt. Pleasant and Mt. Chocorua were scaled by two groups of the little fellows. Parke Schoch, Fred Stelwagon, Dick Deal and Charlie Walton raced up Mt. Pleasant while Bill Thomas, Howie Irwin, Paul Hicks and Bill Ryan mounted the higher pinnacle.

Cabin fifteen copped the weekly inspection prize. Dave Alburger, Cliff Roberts, Bob Rowley, Harley Anders, Ralph Moss and John Bartle get the weekly inspection speed boat ride.

Gordy Clausen seems to be the only boy in camp who will receive a gold medal for passing the specified tests. Silver awards in all probability will be presented to Boyd Brodhead and Buzz Torrey while Rusty DeBurl and Jack Schofield seem headed for bronze emblems. Out of a possible two hundred and twenty-five points, two hundred are needed for a gold award, one hundred and seventy-five for a silver one, and twenty-five less for the bronze. Each of these marks a worthwhile achievement. There is still another week to gain points and at the banquet Saturday others will probably be recognized.

Stunt night Tuesday was featured by the little boys' presentations. Dicky Ryan, Bobby Cairns, Bob Narrigan and Dick Longaker were headliners in the skits. Another pleasant attraction was the singing of Agnes Cassidy, a girl from Camp Arcadia, who is studying for grand opera, who entertained with several popular and semi-classical selections.

Instead of the weekly campfire Saturday night, Mr. Fowler and Mr. Perry presented the movie "One In a Million." To compensate for the loss of this weekly feature, it was combined with the fraternity meeting Sunday. Johnny Martin, Dana Cahoon and Mr. Dick Withington did the entertaining.

Camp closes August 30, and the caravan will arrive home at Narberth Station between 2.30 and 3.00 the following afternoon, Tuesday, August 31.

BADER—FARLEY

The marriage of Miss Marguerite M. Farley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Farley, of New York and Germantown, and Mr. Daniel S. Bader, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Bader, of Merion, will take place on Thursday, September 2, in St. Vincent's Church, Germantown, at 10.00 A. M.

Upon their return from a wedding trip, Mr. Bader and his bride will reside in Cleveland, Ohio.

MAGUIRE—DIEHL

A quiet wedding took place at noon on Saturday, August 21, in All Saints Church, Wynnewood, when Miss Edith Williamson Diehl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duke Diehl, 25 Cynwyd road, Bala, became the bride of Mr. George Barrie Maguire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Maguire, 300 Grayling avenue, Narberth. The couple motored to New Hampshire for their honeymoon.

"Elephant Boy" at Narberth This Friday and Saturday

This week-end the Narberth Theatre presents "Elephant Boy," filmed in India, and based on Rudyard Kipling's novel "Toomai of the Elephants." It features Sabu, a twelve-year-old Indian lad, in the title role of the boy who succeeded to his grandfather's respected nickname because of his skill in handling elephants. Iravatha, an elephant, has the next important part.

Monday and Tuesday brings "Parnell," a historical romance about Charles Stewart Parnell, "Uncrowned King of Ireland," his love affair with Katie O'Shea, a married woman, the results of the sensational divorce scandal that followed, and its effect on the lives of the two persons involved and on Parnell's career as leader of the Irish Party in the bitter fight for home rule. Clark Gable portrays Parnell and Myrna Loy enacts Katie. Monday night at nine everyone plays "Bonus" for valuable awards.

Wednesday (Cash Award Night) and Thursday features "As Good as Married," the story of a secretary who marries her boss to help him save on his income tax. It has John Boles as the tax-dodging architect and Doris Nolan as the helpful secretary who turns the tables on her husband of convenience.

Next Friday and Saturday "The Emperor's Candlesticks," with William Powell and Louise Rainer will be shown.

thor is a Frenchman and is, of course, much interested in what he calls "The French element" of Canada, but he does not neglect British Canada nor the discussion of Canadian and American interests.

"Discovering South America," by Lewis R. Freeman is "a survey of the South America of Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow." It does not claim to be an exhaustive study, but it is a thoroughly readable and interesting tale which becomes absorbing when it contrasts present day conditions with those the author saw many years ago.

Main Line League

Acts on Royersford

Last June when Gladwyne was playing at Paoli, the game was called in the 13th inning with Paoli at bat and Gladwyne leading 4 to 2. Charley Spellman, Paoli manager, insisted the game had to stop in observance of the State "Curfew Law." Since Gladwyne had taken the two-run lead in the 13th, before Paoli had completed their turn at bat, the score reverted to the 12th inning and a 2 to 2 tie.

When brought up before the league officials, it was decided to replay the game from the point where it was halted, using the same line-up as much as possible. When Spellman saw the KeyNels line-up Saturday, he refused to go on the field, resulting in a forfeit of the game by Paoli.

Narberth continued their good work Saturday by handing Pottstown a 14 to 2 lacing on the local grounds. Walt Masters allowed only six scattered hits, turning in his fourth victory in five starts. He also smacked a double in the riotous third, when the Davis-men banged out six runs.

Coatesville stemmed a ninth inning rally to break the nine game winning streak of the Media A. A. and took the battle at 6 to 5.

Upper Darby took Downingtown in a hitting-fest that required the use of two pitchers by each side.

DOORS

that are never closed to the sick, maimed or injured . . .

LAST YEAR the Bryn Mawr Hospital treated fourteen thousand cases.

They came at all hours of the day and night; from all walks of life.

And never was one turned away.
Never was one's ability to pay questioned. Never was race or creed taken into consideration. They were in pain. Many faced death. That was all we needed to know. Rich and poor came to our doors for health and life. We did our best.

In 1936 free services rendered to those who could pay nothing, and to those who could pay partially, amounted to $65,000. This did not include free medical and surgical assistance conservatively estimated at an additional $100,000 or a total approximating $165,000.
